

NEW YORK CITY BALLET
2017 ANNUAL LUNCHEON

the Ties that Bind

the Ties that Bind

This year's exciting program explores the role of family, both literally and figuratively, amongst the 90-plus gifted artists of the Company. In The Ties that Bind, dancers will discuss working alongside siblings, dancing during and after pregnancy, and how the Company functions as a family on stage and off.

The discussion will be complemented by video and never-before-seen dance demonstrations. You won't want to miss this unique perspective of life inside NYCB.
